College Observes Religious Emphasis Week Nov. 1 to 5

Mr. A. J. Elliott Will Speak and Conduct Student Conferences Daily

Final preparations have been made for the observance of "Religious Emphasis Week," which will begin next Monday morning at the 10 o'clock assembly, according to Miss Olive Elliott, chairman of the co-operating committee which is in charge of general arrangements.

Mr. A. J. Elliott, widely known over the United States for his active interests among religious groups, especially the Y.M.C.A., will speak once each day in the College auditorium, and each evening in Social Hall during the week. His lectures will be based upon information gathered from the "Interest Question Boxes" filled out by students of the College last week.

The Woman's Recreation Room on the second floor will be used throughout the week as office and conference room. Students who desire interviews with Mr. Elliott may call on him for appointments.

Mr. Elliott will speak in assembly at 10 o'clock a.m. Monday, 1 o'clock a.m. Tuesday, 1 o'clock a.m. Wednesday, 2 o'clock p.m. Thursday and 11 o'clock a.m. Friday. There will be evening lectures every day of the week, except Friday, at 7:30 o'clock in Social Hall.

"Religious Emphasis Week" is being sponsored by the student Y.M.C.A. and the Newman Club.

Large Audience Hears Halliburton Travel Lecture

Noted Author Tells of Adventures in Tibet, India, and Russia

A packed auditorium of Northwest Missourians traveled in foreign lands through the words of Richard Halliburton, noted traveler and author, Monday evening in the College auditorium.

Timbuktu was the scene of the first adventure related by the author.

He told of the difficulties which he and his companion, Stevens, met with in the making of the trip. At one time five dollars was the price of a gallon of gasoline.

The women bought a 10-year old slave for slaves, the custom of Timbuktu. Many problems confronted them in caring for the slave, and they finally came to the conclusion that it was they who were slaves.

Halliburton related a story of his first voyage, "Medieval Adventure," which was the story of Prince Ernie who preferred death to life.

Halliburton also discussed how he came to the mysterious death of a woman and family. After many attempts to get the real facts, he found a soldier, Ermicoff, who was the traveler. He received a statement that Ermicoff had been a royal family.

CORRECTION

are requested to destroy "Religious Emphasis Week" invitations given at assembly Wednesday. The correct date is "Tuesday, Nov. 12," not "Friday, Nov. 12."

QUESTION BOXES!

Question boxes will be placed in the halls of the Administration building during Religious Emphasis week beginning next Monday. Any questions students wish to ask "Dad" Elliott, religious leader, should be placed in the boxes.

One box will be located at the information desk on the second floor just east of the entrance to the auditorium and the other box will be placed on the magazine counter in the library.

Bearcats to Tangle With Warrensburg Mules Friday Night

Will Attempt to Take C.T.C. Team Out of Conference Top Position

The Bearcats will leave early tomorrow morning for a night contest with the formidable Mules at Warrensburg the same day. In spite of the heart-breaking 12-0 defeat at the hands of the Cape Indians, the local squad after a week of hard drill is ready and confident. Intercepted passes, eight in number, were probably the deciding factors of the game.

Coach Milner is working his charges overtime in an attempt to correct this fault and to speed up running plays involving exchanges behind the line. More of a variety is expected to make the attack more potent.

Warrensburg has been the outstanding favorite to cop the title. The Mules boast, a big, rugged line, equally effective on offense and defense. As for the backfield, all are cagey veterans, capable of making and reaping the harvest from breaks. Johnny Brown, quarterback, is dreaded by all opposition because of his wide end sweep, and deadly forward passes. Harry Bapst receives most of Brown's passes, besides being an effective ball lugger. These boys must be stopped if the Bearcats win.

TRIO PLAYS AT CHURCH

The string trio, consisting of June Ernst, Hattie Richards, and Ruth Coffey, played for students at the Maryville Christian church, Sunday evening, October 17. ### MUSIC AT RECEPTION

Music for the faculty reception held last Thursday evening at Residence Hall was under the direction of Miss Allene Fentress of the conservatory of music. Katherine Schulte, Lois McCartney, Marian Kirk, June Ernst, Hattie Richards, and Ruth Coffey assisted Miss Fentress with the program.

Gene Hill, Editor, and Fred Davidson, Business Mgr., Announce 1938 Annual Staff

TO STAGE PICTURE CONTEST

Gene Hill, Calhoun, editor-in-chief, and Fred Davidson, business manager, of the 1938 Tower, yearbook of the College, this week announced that the staff for this year's annual has been selected. Twelve sophomores and juniors comprise the staff.

Following is the staff as chosen by the editor and business manager Monday afternoon:

Sue Bell, Fort Smith, Ark., Dolores Bolin, Plattsburg; Robert Denton, Richmond; Addison Hartman, Maryville; Willis Heal, Kansas City; Betty McGee, Harris; Leone McIntosh, Ridgeway; Robert Mitchell, Skidmore; Marjorie Perry, Mound City; Hattie Richards, Rockport; Henry Turner, King City; and Henry Zimmerman, Maryville.

After a week-end of hard work, they announced that with the assistance of Harvey Trip, representative of the Burger and Baird Engraving company, they have the book completely planned. All that is now needed is cooperation on the part of the students, for they must have the pictures of the students and student organizations before they can continue.

The Tower staff this year will sponsor a picture contest in connection with the publication of the annual. The student who furnishes the three most satisfactory pictures representing any phase of campus activity will receive a 1938 Tower free. Hill and Davidson announced this week.

Rules of the contest are as follows:

1. Any member of the student body is eligible.

2. Pictures must pertain to college life. (Interior of Residence Hall snapshots, rooming house groups, athletic events, picnics, parties, etc.)

3. Each print must be accompanied by the negative.

4. Name, address, brief write up of picture, and type of camera used must accompany pictures.

8. Contest closes Dec. 1, 1937.

All pictures for the contest should be turned over to Fred E. Davidson, business manager.

Mrs. Ira Richardson Says Indian Possesses Rich Art Heritage

Wife of Former S.T.C. President Tells of Her Observations in Southwest

The Indians of the Southwest have a rich art heritage, Mrs. Ira Richardson, authority on the subject, graduate of the College and wife of a former S.T.C. president told students in assembly at the College yesterday morning.

Describing the exploration of the Southwest by the Spaniards in the 16th century, Mrs. Richardson said that the desire for gold led Coronado into that unknown country.

Some of the villages stand now practically as he found them, she said, mud covered houses, covered with mica glistening like gold in the sun.

"Each Indian pueblo is a separate democracy," said Mrs. Richardson in describing the Taos Indians, whose pueblo is typical. Built into cliffs in terraces, they are sometimes called "The First American Apartment Buildings." These houses are sometimes seven stories high.

Mrs. Richardson, who brought a large collection of Indian art work with her, described in some detail religion, art and dancing of various pueblos.

RELIGIOUS EMPHASIS WEEK

Beginning next Monday and continuing throughout the week until the following Saturday, the College will fittingly observe on this campus "Religious Emphasis Week." The administration has obtained the services of "Dad" Elliott, who is known widely for his work in Young Men's Christian Associations and as a brilliant speaker and religious leader. The College Y. W. and Y. M. C. A. and the Newman Club will sponsor, in collaboration with the institution's administration, the week of religious emphasis.

Whether a student be a Methodist, Baptist, Christian, Catholic or what-not matters little in what is his actual religion. Webster defines religion as a system of faith and worship, which means, the theory or philosophy of life as held by a person, no matter to which denomination he belongs.

Mr. Elliott will be on this campus all next week to help students who have religious troubles, and students who care to may go to him confidently and ask advice on any of their cares. It is true that students, when they enter an institution of higher learning, become confused as to just what their philosophy of life is, and during next week the College faculty and "Dad" Elliott will strive to help the students on this campus solve their difficulties.

RICHARD HALLIBURTON

Donning his seven league boots and coming to the College last Monday evening from the far-distant corners of the earth, Richard Halliburton, internationally-known author and lecturer, presented his usual thrilling address before a packed auditorium. Halliburton, in our estimation, is an example of the best of speakers who "hold their hearers on the edge of their seats," with tales fantastic and real.

Although his hearers did not believe every word of Halliburton's address, there is no question as to the interest shown in that which he had to say. After all, what is life worth if there cannot be a little "spice" included? Then, too, who of us has been where Halliburton has been so that we may disprove what he has said?

Halliburton was born in Brownsville, Tenn., in 1900. In infancy he moved with his parents to Memphis, where he attended Memphis university school. Even then he was interested in literature and the arts. In 1917 he entered Princeton university, after vainly attempting to get into the World War. His college career was punctuated by several attacks of the wanderlust, but he succeeded in graduating with his class in 1921.

The celebrated travel author has this to tell us of his later life: "New York, at brief and irregular intervals, has been my address since Princeton. My great ambition in life is to keep myself free enough from possessions and responsibilities to be able to obey the moment's impulse. I like swimming and history and beer. I've spoken at most of the colleges and private schools in the country and greatly enjoyed these contacts. I've played the leading role in one moving picture—but this was rather painful both to the audience and to myself."

OUR RULES AND OTHERS

Every college dormitory in the United States—even in the world—has certain rules of conduct which students residing there must abide by. Our own Residence Hall for women, being no exception, has certain rules which both men and women in the College are required to obey.

For example, gentlemen may visit their lady friends after 7 o'clock in the evening, and one hour of that, from 7 to 8 o'clock, may be spent in dancing in the Hall parlor. Doors at Residence Hall close at 10:30 o'clock on week-nights and at 11 o'clock on Friday and Saturday nights. At that time all women must be in their rooms, with the exception of those granted certain special leaves.

No doubt that 10:30 hour rolls around quickly sometimes but on the whole our rules should be consoling after reading of some of the following rules as observed in other colleges:

An Illinois school's student body abides by these rules: "Quiet hours are to be observed in all houses between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 12:00 noon, from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m., and after 11:00 p.m. on Friday and Saturday nights."

Restrictions on dates are quite stringent, also, the time allowed for these being between 4:00 and the dinner hour on week days. One may occasionally, however, keep an after-dinner date with a gentleman by special arrangement with the dean of women, and may even ride in an automobile after dark, with her permission.

If any of the fellows in the College have had trouble in meeting that particular girl they have been wanting to date, they should be thankful that she doesn't have to go through the following procedure before she can permit you to call, as women in a certain Virginia school do:

"Request for callers, Name, College Address, Date, Request for Mr. _____ of _____ to be received as a caller at _____ college. Where did you meet this gentleman? How long have you known him? Is he approved by your parents? Has he called at your home? Give name of person who will give us information about him if necessary."

In a certain Iowa school, the following form must be filled out before a woman can journey home for the week-end:

"Is your room ready for inspection? Your windows should be closed and locked. Are they? The steam should be turned on. Is yours? The water should be turned off. Is yours? All doors should be locked. Is yours?"

CAMPUS COMMENT

Mrs. Ira Richardson, wife of one of the College's first presidents, presented an interesting lecture in yesterday's assembly on "The American Indian."

* * * * *

The frost has been on the pumpkin several times in the last two weeks; and incidentally, witches will be riding and ghosts and goblins will be lurking on the campus this week-end.

* * * * *

Maryville's Bearcats "slipped" a little in last Friday night's football game and lost to the Cape Girardeau Indians there by a score of 12-0. Students and local fans were deeply interested in the battle of the Bearcats and the Braves, as evidenced by the avalanche of calls to the Forum office to obtain the final result.

* * * * *

Students in the College are always interested in the way the Tigers down at Missouri university come out in their football battles. Many radios were tuned to one of the several broadcasting stations which relayed the Nebraska game last Saturday, and students heard the team from Lincoln hand the Tigers a 7 to 0 defeat. Incidentally, the Bearcat football team, which met the Cape Indians on Friday night, stopped in Columbia Saturday and constituted a part of the 16,000 crowd that witnessed the annual Tiger-Cornhusker tilt.

W.A.A. HOCKEY POPULAR

The sport of hockey for girls and women is growing every year in popularity, as is evidenced here in the College by the number of girls reporting for W.A.A. hockey.

No college woman can become a good hockey player unless she understands the art of hitting, dribbling, and fielding the ball. These, as the women are gradually finding out, are best learned, not altogether on the hockey field playing the game, but through hard and persistent practice. A player has so much to learn when she first begins to play in the game that she will do well to concentrate upon certain things. Whether she is playing forward, half-back or back, she must endeavor to keep her place and not wander over the field.

In spite of rules, sticks, bullies, the interest in W.A.A. hockey is increasing. The women have all showed a marked improvement in their playing, through the number of practices that have been held. The women are now getting in shape for the regular hockey tournament—both class and intramural—to be played in the near future.

FLUTING IRON IS GIVEN MISS ANTHONY

Mrs. Fred Kurtz has just given an old fashioned fluting iron to Miss Hettie Anthony for the home economics department at the College. The iron was patented by Crown Company, Nov. 2, 1875, and belonged to Mrs. Kurtz's mother, Mrs. Eva Peak Frank.

The iron is in the form of two corrugated cylinders which fit together and are turned by hand. Each cylinder is hollow so that pig iron rods may be heated and inserted to heat the cylinders. The tongs with which the pig irons are handled accompany the iron. The whole iron is small and is so arranged that it may be clamped to a table to make it firm.

During the nineteenth century fluting was a very popular form of ruffling used on women's dresses and petticoats. Often there were fifty or sixty yards of fluted ruffles on one dress. Even baby dresses had fluted trimming.

Mrs. Kurtz's family lived in the South where extremely full dresses were worn. The more fluted petticoats the women wore, the more dressed-up they were.

Fluting is regaining some of its popularity, probably as a result of the incoming split and raised skirt line. The girls in the department will be free to use the fluting iron for any such construction work that may need such trimming.

A shelf will be built into the glass case in the clothing laboratory, so that the iron may be kept on display. This antique tool makes an interesting addition to the already valuable collection which Miss Anthony has in the home economics department.

Bearcats Tangle With Warrensburg

Warrensburg has been scored upon only once this season, the Bearcats four times. However, the Bearcats' pre-conference games were with stronger elevens than Warrensburg encountered.

Long end-runs and passes have carried Warrensburg to victory in all its starts this season. The same tactics will probably be used against the Bearcats. Maryville's aerial attack has been a "bogey-man" so far this year because of interceptions. However, Coach Milner has some good pass plays, and once they start clicking—watch out.

At left-tackle for the Mules will be a former Bearcat, Bill Courter. Courter played here in 1935, but dropped out of school at the end of the first quarter.

The local squad is in fair condition. Lester Brewer, half-back, and Yourek, an end are definitely out because of leg injuries. The condition of Walter Moore and Bob Rogers is a question. Several of the other boys have bruises, and "charley-horses," but are ready to go.

No line-up has been announced but following is a guess as to how the Bearcats will line up for the opening kick-off.

PRES. AND MRS. LAMKIN ENTERTAIN FACULTY

President and Mrs. Uel W. Lamkin were "at home" to the faculty members of the College last night between 8 and 10 o'clock. With them in the receiving line were Dean and Mrs. J. C. Miller. Dr. Margaret Ruth Smith, Miss Mary Fisher, Mrs. J. W. Hake, and Mrs. J. C. Miller assisted in the dining room. A table centerpiece of bronze and yellow chrysanthemums set the color note for the decorations of the evening.

Cape Indians Take Bearcat Gridders Into Camp 12-0

Godwin, Swift Southeast Teachers Back, Makes Both Scores Against Local Eleven

The College Bearcats were handed a 12 to 0 defeat last Friday night by the Cape Indians on the Southeast Missouri Teachers' football field. It was the first conference defeat suffered by the local eleven.

Coach Ryland Milner's Bearcats were out-played during the first two quarters of the game, but came back fighting to put the ball on Cape's seven-yard line in the last part of the third period. This was the only time the local eleven threatened to score, and they were held on downs.

Cape's Indians were ahead of the Bearcats in all departments of the game. They gained 143 yards from scrimmage against Maryville's 41 yards. The Braves made eight first downs to Maryville's one.

Cape seemed to have the answer to every type of play used by the Bearcats.

Cape's first score came in the second quarter when Godwin, swift backfield man, took Bill Bernau's kick on the Indian's 35-yard line and returned it to Maryville's 40-yard stripe. On a double exchange play behind the line of scrimmage, Cape placed the ball on Maryville's 27-yard line. By using another double exchange behind the line, Cape picked up 13 yards to put the ball on Maryville's six-yard line, and from there Godwin, on four successive plays, put the ball over for the first touchdown.

The second touchdown came early in the third quarter when a Maryville punt was partially blocked and went out on the Bearcat 25-yard line. On the next lateral reverse play, Cape brought the ball down to the Maryville 3-yard line, and from there Godwin carried the ball over on the next play.

Cape was unable to convert the attempted kicks for point after the touchdowns.

Bill Bernau received a severe head injury on the fourth play of the game, but continued to play throughout the entire encounter. He will probably be in shape to meet Warrensburg when the team goes to the Central Missouri Teachers college tomorrow night.

HERE'S the DOPE

Conference victories last week placed Cape and Warrensburg at the top in the M.I.A.A. They will come to severe tests tomorrow when our Bearcats and Cape invade Warrensburg and Kirksville.

M.I.A.A. Standings

	W.	L.	T.	Pct.
Cape Girardeau	2	0	0	1.000
Warrensburg	2	0	0	1.000
Maryville	1	1	1	.500
Kirksville	0	0	2	.000
Rolla	0	1	1	.000
Springfield	0	3	0	.000

The feature game, as far as local interest is concerned, is the Bearcat battle with Warrensburg. The Mules, although they pushed the Springfield Bears all over the field last Friday, were able to score but three touchdowns in a 19 to 0 victory. The Bearcats have the stuff to win if they click. However, the passing attack and running plays must carry more variety and deception if they are to win. It can be done.

Cape, by virtue of the victory over the Bearcats last week, is favored over Kirksville. However, don't be surprised if the Bulldogs rise up to slap back the favorites. The pressure of keeping a clean record has been removed. The Bulldogs are free to take chances. Kirksville deadlocked the Rolla Miners 6 to 6 last week in an evenly played contest.

Springfield plays host to Missouri "B" Saturday. This looks like another beating for Springfield. Missouri "B" has been effective against college elevens this fall and should win handily.

Already sports observers are talking All-Conference honors. Cape has Goddard at tackle, Godwin and Metje, backfield men, as standouts so far. Brown and Bapst of Warrensburg, potent backs, are being mentioned. Schwengel, Kirksville's captain and end, is a former All-M.I.A.A. man, and along with Miller, Bulldog quarterback, may get the honor again. Ladd of Rolla, Richesin and Newman of Springfield, backfield men, have played outstanding football. Of our squad, Molitoris and Richards, former All-Conference selections, better than ever, and along with Bernau, should get the call again.
